Commissioner for Patents

The reply brief filed 6/2/11 is acknowledged. Applicants' arguments hinge on the appearance of the alternative linking the references in the 103 rejection. It is noted that this argument is newly added by applicants only after filing of the appeal brief. Rather, throughout prosecution on both sides, the arguments regarding the rejection have indicated an understanding that the references are linked. Hence, despite the oversight, it is clear the references are to be considered together.
